Baker, Isaiah James (1850 - 1912)

Person Note:

The memorial to Hurst Hill's devoted family doctor has stood at the junction of Gorge Road and Hall Lane since 1914. Erected by public subscription, the detailed bust tops a column resting on a plinth with the inscription - He endeared himself to all who knew him by the uprightness of his character, his sympathy with the suffering, and especially by his kindness to the poor. To many in affliction he was a spiritual adviser and cheered the dying with his prayers and words of comfort. By his good deeds, "He being dead yet speakeeth".

Isaiah trained in Edinburgh and qualified as a 'surgeon' in 1877. During the 1880s he moved from Hurst Hill Street to live in 'Hollywell House', Hollywell Street. The doctor practiced in the district for around thirty five years often giving unpaid treatment to the poor and expert attention to all his patients. He would have been familiar with malnutrition, lung disease, industrial injuries, and infant mortality. Hospital visits could have been made to the Royal in Wolverhampton and the Guest in Dudley.

He was born locally in 1850 and married Elizabeth Wright in 1879. Dr Baker died in August 1912 at the age of sixty one and was buried in the Vicar Street graveyard of All Saints, Sedgley. When the area became an open space the headstone was removed and there is no official record of the inscription. Information from Michael Rumbelow - Ancestry - Elizabeth & Frederick met whilst in service to the Duke of Hamilton, Frederick left for Canada Sept 1910 and Elizabeth followed Feb 1912 on her own as far as i can see, Fredericks brother John also emigrated to Canada, and Frederick and John joined the Canadian Army in 1916, while they were away Elizabeth lost nearly everything in a fire and returned to England getting a job as a cook in a house in Buxton Derbys, i think one of her sisters was already in the locality and may have helped her in securing the position.

Clarke, Annie (1895 -)

Person Note:

* An "Anne" appears in the 1901 census with the family born 1895/6

There is no "Anne Clarke" listed in the GRO but this family had a habit of using a first and middle name and them being known by the middle name. She may be Gertrude Anne. On the 1901 census she is listed as being born Stapenhill, she isn't with the family in 1911 and I have been unable to find her in the 1911 census (Though she is amongst the "10 children Born, 9 survive" of the children born to Sarah Ann and William). The baptisms for the rest of the family are as follows: Thomas William, Nellie Isabel and George Henry were all baptized at William's birth Parish of Ticknall pre 1891, Richard John (b 1892) and Doris (b 1903) were both baptized on the same day at Stapenhill St Peter 1903. Kathleen Grace born 1906 is baptized there 1906 - I have been unable to find Baptisms For Anne, Jessie and Hilda who were born after Richard John and Before Doris, they may be in the non-conformist registers.

Duncan, Barbara Jean (1945 - 2009)

Person Note:

KAYES, Barbara Jean Duncan, 64, of Richmond, died July 12, 2009 at home after a courageous battle with cancer. She was born in New York City, but grew up in Huntington, W.Va. She was preceded in death by her parents, Dr. Charles Spurgeon Duncan, a prominent Huntington dermatologist, and Kathleen Tivey Duncan. She is survived by her husband, Henry Middleton Kayes; two daughters by a previous marriage and their husbands, Tivey Elizabeth Clark (John Christopher Heagarty) of Raleigh, N.C., and Carrie Ellen Clark Campbell (Matthew Ord Campbell) of Hoboken, N.J.; and three grandchildren who called her "Babby," John Stephen Heagarty, Sidney Emma Heagarty and Grace Tivey Campbell. A fourth grandchild, Charles Hudson Campbell, is due to be born in September. Other survivors include a brother, Charles Spurgeon Duncan Jr. (Rose Collins) of Nellysford, Va.; two nieces, Susan Tivey Duncan of Lexington, Ky. and Jessie Duncan Rice of Somerset, Ky.; a nephew, Charles Arnold "Chad" Duncan of Louisville, Ky.; two cousins, Frances Seaman Mills of Lexington, Ky., and Larry Duncan (Hester Duncan) of Las Vegas, Nev.; many good and true friends, especially Sally Gammon, Joyce Sisson, Mimi Morrill, Karen Hanna, Jeanne Lovelock, Dr. Neil Hutcher; and her first husband, Stephen C. Clark Jr. (Mary Sine Clark) of Richmond. Barbara had a long career in health care, first as a Registered Nurse, then as a Nurse Practitioner. She graduated from Emory University in Atlanta in 1967 with a bachelor's degree in nursing. She came to Richmond in 1972 and two years later was awarded a master's degree in nursing from the Medical College of Virginia's School of Nursing. In 1994 she became a Nurse Practitioner after completing the required course of study at Marshall University in Huntington. During her career, she worked at several hospitals, including 16 years as a surgical clinical nurse specialist at St. Mary's Hospital in Richmond. In recent years, she worked for Dr. Neil Hutcher's bariatric surgery program at Commonwealth Surgeons Ltd. Barbara was a generous person who truly believed it is more blessed to give than to receive. Her favorite time of year was Christmas season, when her gift-giving kicked into high gear. She loved chocolate, West Virginia's Greenbrier River and traveling. She had fond memories of trips to Europe with Tivey and Carrie, and fly-fishing trips to Montana with Henry. She maintained a cheerful outlook throughout her illness and kept her sense of humor. She wanted everyone to know she was "a damn good FreeCell player" who won 70 to 75 percent of the time. Her family and friends extend heartfelt thanks to the 6 East nursing staff at St. Mary's for their care over the past two years. They provided tremendous support, laughter and love. Thanks also to Ayana Thompson, who provided hours of comforting care in Barbara's home in the final days. The family will receive friends from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday, July 17, 2009 at the Parham Chapel, Woody Funeral Home, 1771 N. Parham Rd., where a memorial service to celebrate Barbara's life will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, July 18, 2009. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to NorthStar Community Church or the charity of your choice. Condolences may be registered at www.mem.com.

Joyce had two illegitimate children before she married Isaac Tivey. One named Elizabeth whose father was named as Thomas Mansfield and a boy named Joseph Merrey.

See husband Isaac for marriage detail.

DEATH:? It is thought that Joyce died before civil registration began September Qtr 1837. I have searched the burial register at Rolleston St Marys (where children were baptized) and that of her home Parish (Hanbury) and the Parish where her husband Isaac was residing in 1841 (Tutbury) but have been unable to find a burial for her at these Parishes. She may have died in a workhouse infirmary or an asylum. (Please contact me if you have any further information)

Tivey, Alfred T (1874 - 1907)

Person Note:

27 September 1907, The Meriden Daily Journal, Article - "CONVULSIONS LASTED FOURTEEN HOURS" Hartford, Conn. Sept 27, After a series of convulsions lasting fourteen hours, Alfred Tivey of 241 Main Street, died of hydrophobia at the Hartford hospital about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Tivey's case is regarded as the most typical that has come to the knowledge of the authorities for many years. From a scientific standpoint, his case is of much interest to all physicians in the city, and it was said last night that application had been made to his family for permission for an autopsy. Tivey was about thirty-three years old was formerly a machinist. recently, he had been a steward at the Eagles' club on Central row. Six weeks ago, walking down Main Street in the evening, he noticed a strange dog on the sidewalk, and stooped down to pat the dog on the back. As he did so the animal sprang at him, fastening his teeth in the front of his face and holding on for several seconds.

Mr Tivey had the wound cauterized and after a week or so thought no more about the matter. On Wednesday afternoon while walking down Main street near Poll's theatre, he complained of being ill and some of his friends took him into a neighboring drug store. Dr M R Laden was sent for, and while he was preparing a dose of morphine, Tivey was taken with convulsions. Dr Laden said yesterday that only by great mental effort did Tivey succeed in swallowing the solution. The effort put him into another convulsion and he fell back on the floor perfectly rigid.

Tivey was taken to Hartford hospital, where every attention was given him. A medical consultation was held and serum was sent from New York. from the time he arrived at the hospital Tivey was kept in a straightjacket. There were intervals between his convulsions at first but these soon ceased and the attacks that ended with his death lasted continuously over twelve hours. Physicians who were called in for consultation say it is one of the most interesting cases that ever developed here. It is said that Tivey was nervous for a number of weeks after his encounter with the dog. As time went on and the wound seemed to heal, he lost most of his nervousness and for the last weeks had had little apprehension.

Dr Laden's says he was very nervous Wednesday afternoon and succeeded in swallowing the medicine mixed in a small glass of water only by a supreme effort. Tivey was very restless, but comparatively quiet up to the time the water was brought into the room. He then showed a remarkable aversion to it, saying that he couldn't drink and wouldn't swallow anything. It is said that he walked up and down the floor in front of the glass trying to overcome his repugnance, When he finally tossed it off, the effort overcame him and he fell to the floor senseless. He complained of a choking, gasping sensation which developed into convulsions.

The case is especially interesting to the public, as the dog that bit him is still at large. It is questioned whether the authorities will apply the dog-muzzling ordinance, as was done last year, as the recent reports of mad dogs have not been serious.

February 13th 1894 Manchester Guardian Article - "THE GREAT GALE - Casualties - LOSS OF LIFE AT WOLVERHAMPTON - Yesterday morning at Wolverhampton, Rebecca Smith, 28, daughter of Henry Smith, Bishop Street, and Amelia Tivey, 18, daughter of Jane Tivey, widow, Sidney Street, Wolverhampton, were both found killed in bed at the house of Mr George Wynn, Penn Road, an aged man whom they had been nursing. They were completely buried by the roof and chimney of the house, which had been blown in during the night by the gale. On Sunday night also a steam tramcar was blown over off the metals, and several people seriously injured."

24 December 2012 - Article online - Knutsford Guardian: Platinum celebrations for couple after 70 years together - IT has been a platinum celebration for a Knutsford couple this week as they toasted a landmark wedding anniversary.

Jack and Rene Tivey tied the knot on December 12, 1942 and 70 years on from their big day the couple raised a glass at their Sharston Crescent home.

After meeting on a busy train between Coventry and Birmingham the pair hit it off straight away and two months later were married.

But Jack told the Guardian that due to the war they don't have any pictures of the ceremony at Birmingham registry office as all the film had to be sent to the forces.

"It wasn't as easy to have a big wedding back then," Rene added.

After first daughter, Hilary, was born in 1944 they left the West Midlands and headed to Filey in north Yorkshire for a change in career to run a 100-bed youth hostel.

Both Rene and Jack had happy memories of hostels while growing up and decided to give it a go.

Rene said: "It was jolly hard work. I'd heard of the youth hostel movement at school and we were all told about the 'magic shilling', which meant you could stay in a hostel for one shilling."

Jack added: "We wanted to do something together and I'd stayed in youth hostels across Europe when I was a student."

But after Rene gave birth again, the strain of bringing up their off spring and welcoming guests became too much for the couple and they swapped the large hostel for a 14-bed hostel in nearby Farndale, which also saw Jack return to teaching.

They decided to leave the world of youth hostels after their third child, David, was born and moved to Hull where Jack worked as a youth organiser for the district.

With the youth movement in Cheshire in dire straits due to funding issues, Jack decided he fancied the challenge and the couple moved to Knutsford - and 46 years later they are still in the same house.

Rene said: "We've got some very good friends and neighbours on the crescent and we were first attracted here because of the green spaces for the children to play in."

Both are fans of walking and have travelled around the world, including on the Trans Siberian railway.

Jack was clear about his key life moment though.

"The best thing I ever did was marry Rene," he said.

"I'm not sure we've got a happiest memory, we've had a lot, but at the same time we've had some the other way but we've always worked at it.

"I would advise anyone though if they want to be married a long time to choose your parents wisely, marry a saint and get a good GP."

The couple have three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

*Note: Alfred and Ann (aka Clara) do not appear in the GRO index, they may have been registered in their mother's maiden name or they may be Mary's children from a previous relationship. According to the 1900 USA Census Mary had 5 children, 4 of which were still alive in 1900. I have listed them as Alfred, Ann, Clara, Frank and Elizabeth who was born in Massachusetts, USA in 1886.

Frank (Francis) is the only one listed in the GRO as Tivey in 1881 born Chorlton District of Manchester.

In 1883 (according to his son & Wife's census details) Frank, his "wife" Mary and their children, Alfred, Clara (Ann) and Francis jnr Emigrated to the US. They first set up in Springfield, Massachusetts, where the couple had a further two children - Elizabeth in 1886 and Edward Harold in 1887 (died in infancy). The family then moved on to Hartford City, Hartford, Connecticut.

In 1888 he appears in Geer's City Directory of Hartford, Connecticut - Tivey, Frank, Tailor, h. 9 Kennedy.

In 1889 & 1892 Francis appears in a US City Directory in Hartford, Connecticut: Tivey, Frank, tailor, h 2u, 9 Goodman pl. By the 1900 census, his 2nd "wife" Mary is listed as a Widow in 1900, it is therefore assumed that he died before 7th June 1900, the date of the US Federal census:

Francis Died 10th June 1899 - Source Find a Grave - buried at Hartford, Hartford County, Connecticut.

Person Note:

According to sources in the US (WWII Draft Registration Card and SS Death Index) Francis was born 14 May 1882, in Manchester. However, his actual birth was recorded June Quarter 1881 in the Chorlton District of Manchester, Lancashire England. Volume 8c Page 906 - the 1900 US census also states his birth was May 1881: His parents emigrated to USA 1883; The 1890 US census did not survive and therefore the earliest record found so far is the 1900 US Federal census:

Tivey, Francis (1725 - 1800)

Person Note:

LF Tivey states "Francis may have been the Son of George who died in Newton Solney in 1773 - see Group J"

The birth recorded as 20/10/1725 in Newton Solney Parish register of a Francis Tivey, son of George and Elizabeth would fit Lawrence Francis Tivey's theory which I am inclined to agree with. Elizabeth (his mother) was the daughter of Francis Bladon, which could explain a naming pattern with regards to his first name. The marriage license obtained in 1754 states that he is 27 years of age, which again would be further evidence of him being the son of George and Elizabeth as the birth recorded in the Newton Solney Registers would match.

In 1778 Francis worked for Thomas Brown in Rolleston; later, around 1794/5 he was himself an employer. Around 1800 he moved to the village of Newbold in the parish of Tatenhill (no connection with the Newbold in the parish of Breedon on the Hill mentioned in group D). His last will was made in 1826 after the death of his wife. In 1833 he was listed as a voter in the hamlet of Dunstall (which includes Newbold) but his residence is shown as Horninglow (a suburb of Burton on Trent. The burial register at Tatenhill suggests he was of Dunstall.

Tivey, George (1685 - 1773)

Person Note:

George may have been christened at Ashby de la Zouch St Helen's 13 January 1686 the son of George. His 2nd Marriage to Elizabeth Fisher states that he is of the Parish of Ashby de La Zouch. His burial on September 24th 1773 Newton Solney, does not state his age at death. A marriage licence dated 1745 (spouse Susannah Peach) states that he is around 55 years old, which would give a birth year of around 1690 but the ages on such licenses were rarely accurate according to some. If he is the George who was born in Ashby de la Zouch around 1686 then the tree can be linked up further back.

George was a widower when he married Elizabeth Fisher (nee Bladon) also a widow, in Blackfordby, Leicestershire, she is thought to be the mother of Francis born 1725; His first wife may have been Elizabeth Gadsby m. 1710 Uttoxeter - the licence states that he was a basket weaver but there is no other evidence to suggest that this George is the same person who married Elizabeth Bladon for certain, it may even be his widowed father George of Ashby de la Zouch. It is thought that Elizabeth (nee Bladon) died in 1733, the entry in the Newton Solney Parish register states: Elizabeth Tive wife of George Tive - though the surname is quite hard to decipher. There is also another entry dated April 30th 1740 that records the burial of a Mrs Tive, this could also relate to George's mother who may have resided with them in her latter years, or another wife of George after the death of Elizabeth before his marriage to Susannah Peach (nee Merrimen) in 1745. However, I find this unlikely as the curate usually stated the husband's name if he was still alive at the time of a wife's death. IE Mary Tivey wife of William Tivey. If the wife died after the husband she was usually give the title "Widow Tivey" or Widow Smith" etc but as no age is mentioned in the burial record it is hard to state for certain. This lady could not have been the wife of Francis born 1725 as his first marriage would have been to Rebecca Smedley in 1754 according to the marriage license, he was a batchelor.

Another may George Tivey married an Elizabeth Tookey in 1745 - he may have been the son of this George and therefore brother of Francis but at this point I have been unable to find a baptism or burial for him in Newton Solney. For the purpose of this file I have added Elizabeth Tookey as the wife of George Snr - The Parish register entry does not state that he is a widower, the banns may do so but at the moment I cant verify either way. Records from Early Newton Solney and surrounding parishes include:
1719 a marriage bond of George Tivey and Elizabeth Fisher (nee Bladon) at Blackfordby state that she is a widow of Newton Sonney, he a Widower of Ashby de la Zouch.
1725 Baptism of Francis Tivey, son of George and his wife Elizabeth.
1733 Burial of Elizabeth Tivey, wife of George Tivey.
1745 Marriage Licence of George Tivey of Newton Solney states he is 55 yrs of age, Spouse Susannah Peach is 44 years of age, both are widows.

Newspaper Report July 1869 - (Thanks to Callum Vittali-Smith) DISTRICT NEWS- THE ATTEMPTED SUICIDE AT SHAVERS END - Yesterday, at the Police Court, an old man, named Isaac Tivey, was charged with attempting to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor, on Wednesday last. The evidence of a woman, named Sarah Billingham, showed that she found the prisoner leaning over a rail, in a field near the Parade, with a wound in his throat. She took the razor from him and he staggered off. At the end of the field he met a man named John Hudd, who accosted him, and finally sent another man, named Besse, to the police station for assistance. Prisoner told Hudd that he wished to get out of this world. Police constable Rudge deposed that he apprehended the prisoner on the New Dock, where he had wandered. When charged he made no reply. Mr T F Higgs, surgeon, said he found the prisoner with his shirt and clothes covered with blood. On the right side of his neck there was an oblique incised wound, about three inches in length. The windpipe was exposed. There was a similar wound on the left side, so deep that the wind pipe was also exposed. Neither of the wounds were dangerous. Prisoner had a thick beard, which protected his throat. When called upon for his defence, the prisoner said he had had a tumour on his head years ago, and the slightest excitement strongly affected him. A few days before he had lain in a field, and the sun affected him. He had begun the tragedy, and if they sent him to Stafford Gaol they would finish it. A son and son-in-law of the prisoner promised to take care of him, but the Bench decided to commit the prisoner for trial, bail being accepted:

15 November 1855 Isaac married his first wife Letitia Moon at Coseley, Staffordshire, it is thought that the marriage was later annulled as Letitia remarried in 1866. His second wife Elizabeth spent many years as a "common law" wife before they finally married in 1879:
