Generation 2

2. John Tivey-2 (Thomas Tivey-1). He was born Abt. 1783 in Melbourne, Derbyshire, England. He died Dec 1831 in Shepshed, Leicestershire, England.

Notes for John Tivey:

General Notes:

Two Tivey's, believed to have been born in Melbourne, settled in Shepshed, Leics, in the early 19th century. It is almost certain that they were brothers. There is no clue whatsoever as to the identity of their parents. These said Tivey's were John born about 1783 and William born 1793 in Melbourne Derbyshire. L F Tivey 1973.

Since this statement has been made, Apprentice Papers for William Tivey (said to be the 'brother' of John) have been discovered at the Records Office in Matlock Derbyshire. These state that William was an orphan (parents being Thomas & Mary Tivey deceased) He was apprenticed out to William Hallam, a Framework Knitter of Sheepshead (Shepshed) Leicestershire in 1803. It is still unknown as to whether John was the brother of William, but William was a witness to the wedding of John Tivey and Ann Heatherley. J A Tivey 2007.

Charles is a bit of a mystery. There isnt a Christening for him or a death but he appears on the 1841 census as 14 years of age with his mother Ann Danvers (nee Tivey nee Heatherley) and his 'sisters' Mary & Jane as well as step brothers & sisters. At first it was thought that he could have been Ann's nephew (Son of William & Elizabeth Tivey) BUT there is also a Charles aged 10 with William in the Loughborough workhouse in 1841, thought to be William's son

Notes for William Tivey:

General Notes:

Whilst some researchers state that John born 1783 as the son of Edward Tivey & Mary Fairbrother, there is absolutely no evidence to prove this theory or that of William's brother John who both resided in Shepshed. There are apprenticeship papers for William Tivey that state he was the orphaned child of 'the late' Thomas & Mary Tivey, apprenticed out to William Hallam, Frame Work Knitter of Sheepshead (Shepshed). This is the ONLY evidence to suggest the parentage of the Shepshed Tivey 'brothers' There is not one connection with the Fairbrother families at all. It is thought that Thomas, father of this William & John, was the brother of Edward Tivey (who married Mary Fairbrother), husbandman. There is no evidence of their mother Mary's maiden name to date.

William was the first Tivey to appear in the Shepshed Parish registers with the christenings of the children of him and his wife Elizabeth Heatherley, his 'brother' John appeared sometime later, although older than William his marriage was much later than John's and William was a witness.

Apprenticed out as an orphan in 1803 ~ transcription of Apprentice Record reads:~ This indenture made the twenty ninth Day of April in the forty third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth, and in the Year of our Lord 1803 WITNESSETH, that George Barston and William Dunicliffe, Church Wardens of the Parish of Melbourne in the County of Derby AND James ?? and John Earp Overseers of the Poor in the said Parish by and with the Consent of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said county whose Names are hereunto subscribed, have put and placed, and by these Presents do put and place William Tivey son of Thomas and Mary Tivey late of Melbourne aged eleven years or thereabouts, a poor Child of the said Parish, Apprentice to William Hallam of Sheepshead in the County of Leicester Frame Work Knitter with him to dwell and serve from the Day of the Date of these Presents, until the said Apprentice shall accomplish his full age of Twenty One Years according to the Statue in that Case made and provided: DURING all which Term, the said Apprentice and Master faithfully shall serve in all lawful Businesses, according to his Power, Wit and Ability; and honestly, orderly, and his obediently in all Things demean and behaveth himself towards his said Master and all his during the said Term. 1816 William is named by the overseer's of the poor in Sheepshead as the father of Elizabeth Hetherley's bastard male child and ordered to pay for the upkeep of the child: This child is thought to have been their son William, who took the Tivey name, William married Elizabeth later that same year;

No marriage or death recorded, and therefor could have emigrated. However, there is a Sarah & Robert Ward living next door to Elizabeth Heatherley Tivey (Sarah's grandmother) in 1871 a further check shows that Robert Ward married Sarah Hitherley 1867 Shepshed ~ It is my assumption that this is in fact Sarah Tivey, daughter of Thomas Tivey and Sarah Grimley as there are no births for Sarah Hitherley/Heatherley at that time in the Shepshed area. BUT.... On the census, age is 4 years out, so needs further investigation

When registered: 16 March 1905.

NOTE: Cause of death - Syncope = Fainting or passing out, frequently called syncope in a medical context, is a sudden, and generally momentary, loss of consciousness, or blacking out caused by the Central Ischaemic Response, because of a lack of sufficient blood and oxygen in the brain. Central ischaemic response is the brain's response to a chronic lack of blood available to the brain. The brain attempts to prioritise its own needs above any others by commandeering all available blood flow at the expense of all other bodily functions and increasing the rate of blood oxygenation. In age, can be also linked to hemmorrhage in the Brain (Stroke), causing sudden death;

Notes for Edward Tivey:

General Notes:

Born Jan 1835 according to US Census; His christening has not been discovered yet but the ONLY Tivey christening at St Botolph's Parish Church in Shepshed was that of his younger brother (also Edward) who was christened on the same day as his death in 1833; It is thought that though many burials for the Tivey's took place at St Botolph's - they were actually non-conformists (Baptists, Methodists, Independents) and St Boltoph's at that time was the only church with a burial ground.

1841 England Census - To date Edward cannot be found: His father William and siblings Charles, Jane and Mary Ann all live in the Loughborough District Workhouse (Source Citation: Class: HO107; Piece 595; Book: 11; Civil Parish: Loughborough; County: Leicestershire; Enumeration District: Loughborough Union Workhouse; Folio: 11; Page: 6; Line: 7; GSU roll: 438745) , whilst his mother Elizabeth is residing at Pick Street, Shepshed with her eldest son William (Source Citation: Class: HO107; Piece 596; Book: 5; Civil Parish: Sheepshed; County: Leicestershire; Enumeration District: 24; Folio: ; Page: 3; Line: 24; GSU roll: 438746) His brother Thomas is residing with Matthew Hetherley (Grandfather) at Britannia Street, Shepshed: Edward may be with another relative or visiting a friend at the time of the census:

****The 1900 US Federal Census states that Edward Emigrated in 1857 - Information from his great Nephew John Tivey (Letter dated August 11th 1970) States that his Great Uncle "Ted" was a member of the "Queens Army" who deserted his post to fight in the Amercian Civil War for the North. To date there is evidence that Edward did take part in the Civil War but there is no evidence that he joined Queen Victoria's Army - (NOTE - this does not prove that he wasn't a member of the army - very few army records of this period still exist in England) Despite extensive searching he does not appear on any ship manifesto for emigration for either Canada nor America to date:***

Generation 4 (con't)

Funeral Home, 128 Washington Street, Lynn, Massachusetts on Friday, at 2 PM. Relatives and friends invited. After James William's burial, he was exhumed on December 11, 1939 and moved to 62 Datura Path where he was buried with his wife who had been buried December 7, 1939.

James William Tivey was born on June 18, 1868 in Needham, Massachusetts as the first child of Edward and Deatlor Marion Tivey. There is some mention of him being born in New York City but the birth was recorded in Needham and I assume the reference to New York City is false or possibly he could have been born while on the move from Germantown, Pennsylvania, north!

James is first recorded as a Shoemaker in Lynn, Massachusetts in 1888 at the age of 20 years. He was the first of the family to leave the Newton-Needham area with the rest of the family following a year later. He boarded by himself at 35 Cook Street in Lynn until he was married to Isabella K. Butterick of Toronto Ontario, Canada born there on September 12, 1871, daughter of Charles F. and Isabella Jane Butterick. The marriage took place in Lynn, Massachusetts on April 22, 1890 and James and Isabella took up residence at 58 Marianna Street in Lynn.

Their first child William Herbert was born in that house on February 15, 1891. James and young family moved quite a bit in the early years of marriage. His next move was to 15 Mt. Pleasant Place in Lynn in 1892 where their second child Isabella B. was born on July 1892 and died their October 11, 1892. Then he moved on to 20 Johnson Street in 1893. He is listed as a stock fitter during this period.

In the summer of 1893 he was living at 11 Broad Street Place where their third child Lena Isabella was born on June 14, 1893 and also in 1894 at the same address Ida May was born on August 28, 1894.

He is listed as a rubber weaver and continued to live at 11 Broad Street Place until 1898 when the family moved to 145 New Chatham Street which was later renamed Eutaw Avenue.

James worked as a weaver at 8 Market Street and in 1903 worked as a weaver at 7 Munroe Street Lynn, Massachusetts. On July 15, 1898 his last child Charles Edward was born at 145 New Chatham Street. In 1905 his wife Isabella was working as a seamstress at the same address as her husband, 7 Munroe Street in Lynn. In 1909 he is listed as working for Curtis and Spindell at 205 Oxford Street in Lynn the same business his Father Edward had been associated with. Isabella worked for the same concern.

In 1914 due to a severe drinking and personality problem James left the family residence on Eutaw Avenue and boarded at 100 Eutaw Avenue in Lynn. He was finally divorced in 1916 or 1917 and moved to 49 Goldthwart Street and in 1918 is listed at 110 Union Street, Lynn, Massachusetts. By 1920 he is listed as an elastic stocking knitter for Curtis and Spindell at 205 Oxford Street with residence at No 11 " The Arcade" an apartment house. His wife during this time lived in the same house at 145 Eutaw Avenue and continued to work as a seamstress. Around 1921 she moved in with her son Charles Edward and Helen Tivey at 158 Eutaw Avenue Lynn, Massachusetts. In 1924 Charles moved with his mother to 9 Goodrich Street in Lynn. In 1928 James was living at 10 Olive Street and his wife was living with son Edward Charles at 396 Chatham Street Lynn, Massachusetts.

James's problem with drink continued all through Prohibition until it ended as did the life of James. He had been having problems with the police since 1906. It is stated that he would break into the house of his wife and son, and steal supplies to sell in order to buy liquor. A story is told by his son Charles Edward that he with his brother William Herbert found their father James drunk in Meadow Park ( present location of Lynn English High School in Lynn). They loaded him into a wagon they had borrowed and drove him all the way to Topsfield, Massachusetts where they dropped him beside the road with hopes that he would never return. They drove back at a moderate rate pace and while going past the Park to return the wagon, there was their father setting on a bench drunker than ever. He had beaten them back to town.

Son William Herbert told me of a conversation he once had with his father James. James told him that when he was sober he had a job and seemed all right but when he started drinking he did not even work and would stay drunk for three months at a time. His wife Isabella had to go to the bar room and have someone going in bring James out so she could get some money from him. The police got tired of arresting him at Meadow Park so they would bring him home to his sons house and leave him by the back door.

James also got mixed up with a group of fellows at the dump and started fermenting alcohol from garbage and this not only got him in a lot of trouble during Prohibition but lead to his death of Alcohol Poisoning.

"NURSE CHILD" A nursechild was a standard term for an infant foster child. It is not necessarily the case that a nursechild was being nursed (breastfed) by a woman in the same household. The nursechild may have been fostered out for a number of reasons, such as the loss of one or both parents, or the parents being unable to look after the child due to reduced circumstances." They were usually children who had ended up in the workhouse for whatever reason. (VALDA, Rootschat)

NOTE: I have looked up this family throughout the census and cannot make any connection to the Tivey Family. William Barnes was a Frame Work Knitter and has no Connection to Isaac, His wife Esther is also born Notts and her parents are Irish. They could have been related to Tryphena Taylor's side of the family but this is yet to be established. It is thought at this point that Isaac paid the Barnes family to look after Mary whilst he was away selling fabric as a travelling agent. Jan Tivey 2008

The rest of Mary's siblings were with relatives in the 1881 census, her father Isaac is a lodger in Plymouth Occupation Agent; he re-married in 1890 and Mary then lived with him and his new wife in Hampshire; before returning to Nottinghamshire to reside with her aunt Lois Stevenson.

From Harlequin Books Newsbeat 2004 Fall Issue: St Petersburg, Florida resident Lena Dionne, celebrated her 111th birthday in June 2004. When asked to what she attributes her remarkable longevity, Lena replied that she owes it all to eating three square meals a day and reading five Harlequin romance novels per week - without glasses yet! Born in Massachusetts in 1893, Lena singled out Harlequin books for their thrilling stories - "Its got to be exciting or I won't read it"

*From: http://www.sptimes.com/2002/06/16/SouthPinellas/Her\_secret\_at\_age\_109.shtml
KENNETH CITY -- Lena Dionne reads about three or four Harlequin romance novels a week.*

Such titles as A Woman of Innocence, Expose and The Sheik and the Vixen attest to her passion. They sit on a bookshelf in her room at the Colonial Care Center, along with a pocket-sized Bible.

"I love to read any kind of book," said Mrs. Dionne, who celebrated her 109th birthday at the nursing home last week. "It keeps my mind going. I don't remember how long I've been reading them, but they are getting racier."

Mrs. Dionne, born Lena Tivey on June 14, 1893 in Lynn, Mass., had an early birthday bash Thursday with about 100 people, including nursing home residents and staff and about 20 members of her church, Clearview United Methodist of St. Petersburg.

"Lena is a remarkable person," said Nina Allen, 84, a church member. "I understand she reads her books without glasses."

Mrs. Dionne, dressed in a teal two-piece dress and pearls, had an explanation. "I used to wear glasses, but they bothered me," she said. "So now I read without them."

As remarkable as it is that Mrs. Dionne has lived to 109, statistics show it is not that unusual to live beyond 100 anymore.

Steve Whitaker, an analyst with the Florida Department of Health's vital statistics office, said the U.S. Census of April 2000 indicated there were 90 women and 55 men in Florida aged 110 or more. Of those, six men and 11 women lived in Pinellas County.

"The Census stops counting at 110, so they just say 110-plus," Whitaker said.

Linda Messerschmidt, a Social Security field representative, said that as of December 2000, there were 2,340 people over the age of 100 receiving Social Security in the state of Florida.

Mrs. Dionne couldn't remember if she ever received Social Security. She did recall that she worked in a factory in downtown St. Petersburg.

"I used to repair black patent leather shoes," she said Thursday. "I had to fill in the cracks and then pack them in boxes. I don't remember when I retired, but it seems like I worked forever."

Lena Tivey's parents were from England and they settled in Lynn, Mass., where they both worked in a factory. Her father was a weaver and her mother a seamstress. She had an older brother and a younger brother and sister, but she's the only survivor.

She met and married Billy Dionne when she was 16.

She doesn't remember when she and her husband moved to Florida from Massachusetts or when he died, "but we bought a little house. Billy grew vegetables and I had flowers," she said.

She also remembered that there were dirt roads and they had a horse and buggy at first. Then Mrs. Dionne learned how to drive.

"It was a black Ford," she said. "But I walked to work because Billy didn't want me to drive. He really wanted me to stay home."

The Dionnes had one son, George, who died in his 40s. His widow, Marion, 88, also lives at the Colonial Care nursing home. They didn't have any children.

"She looks good for that age," Marion Dionne said of her mother-in-law at the party.

The elder Mrs. Dionne seemed to enjoy herself, joining in on some of the songs and pushing herself around in her wheelchair to chat with friends.

Lena Dionne's secret to long life?

"Be sure to eat a good breakfast," she said. "I just love food. I like to eat any time."

She never smoked but admitted to drinking a beer now and then. "I only had a beer when I was home. My husband had a keg of beer in the cellar."

-- Times researchers Kitty Bennett and Connie Humburg contributed to this report.

Since 1893

When Lena Dionne was born Lena Tivey, Grover Cleveland was in his second term as president of the United States. Since then, there have been 19 other presidents.

Orville and Wilbur Wright flew the first machine-driven airplane in 1903, when Lena Tivey turned 10.

At 16, Lena Tivey married Billy Dionne. She was 27 when American women got the right to vote in 1920. "You bet I registered to vote. I even marched," she said.

Mrs. Dionne was 36 when the Great Depression started in 1929.

Mrs. Dionne has lived through at least seven major wars, including the Spanish-American War of 1898, two World Wars and the current war in Afghanistan.

Notes for Prudence May Hall Tivey:

General Notes:

Notes from Hilary Woods, Prudence's daughter in law; The young pretty Charlotte (known as Gladys) fell hook line and sinker for one of the many sons of Isaac & Harriett Hall who were neighbours in Shepshed. Charles was a really handsome man (and from personal experience one of the nicest men I have known) He went to fight for king and country and whilst he was away Gladys realised that her clandestine nights of passion had resulted in a baby which was to become my mother-in-law.. She was registered as Prudence May Hall Tivey and weighed in at 2 lbs., she was incubated in the plate warming part of the cast iron range and fed through a fountain pen tube. On his return from the great war they married and as all C.G.A. siblings had grown and gone, her being the youngest, they lived with her parents. Eventually they managed to get a home of their own with Charlie being a lace maker he was always in work. When they did leave they left Pru behind to be brought up by Charles & Ann. Then Charles Eric (known as Eric) was born in 1921 and that according to Pru sealed her fate. She was then brought up by her grandparents whom she adored. Eric was killed on active service in September 1945 after peace was declared. Gladys until her dying day never got over it. I have in my possession dozens of letter he wrote to his mother he was indeed a loving and loved son. He was also a very clever young man being the youngest man to gain his wings. He was pilot officer 199321 RAF. Shortly after his death his promotion to flight lieutenant came through, he is buried in Karachi India (now Pakistan). Prudence went on to marry Herbert Woods a man 18 years her senior. It didnt work out and after three sons Terry 1941 Trevor 1942 and Robert 1943 they separated.

Notes for Dorothy Love:

General Notes:

Dorothy (my mother) was the youngest child. Her father died three days before her 7th birthday, (leaving Annie to raise four minors & an invalid by herself). There was not much available during her childhood; her mother was able to get a job as a cook in a town school, but that caused part of her widow's pension to be withheld. When Dorothy was 17 World War 2 started, and as it progressed, single women were also required to register for the draft. Since she had 3 brothers serving in the armed forces and a widowed mother with an invalid child, Dorothy was not inducted into the army, but was instead given a "man's job" to free him up for military service. She worked for the electricity board, collecting coins from electric meters, which was the way to get electrical service in those days. After the war, Dorothy married John Webb and had two children. Jobs were scarce in this post-war time, so they decided to emigrate to Canada, invited by John's aunt who had emigrated there years earlier. Canada did not hold any good jobs, so Dorothy's Uncle Joe Tivey sponsored them to come to New Jersey, USA. There, John was able to find work in the construction industry, finally in home improvement companies. Dorothy & John moved to Hawthorne, NJ where they remained. Dorothy died of a stroke in May 2006, after a short illness. (Rosemary Webb 2009)

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS - Rhode Island 12 May 1960 "ESTATE RAIDERS SENTENCES DEFFERED" "The state in Superior Court yesterday afternoon recommended a deferred sentence for each one of four persons charged with breaking into 'Vedimar', the Willium deF. Manice Jr, estate on Harrison Ave.

Asst Att Gen Raymond Pettine narrated the circumstances involved in the break in the charges against Marvin F Griffin, 25, of the USS Arcadia and Charles R Tivey, 25, of the Naval Station; and against Elizabeth Huebner, 21, and Claudette R Tivey, 20 both of Forest Park for Mobile Homes in Middletown.

Pettine said it was an unusual case involving four heretofore reputable persons and - he noted- that the incredible thing was that they went back to the estate three different times to remove goods. In Stern voice Judge Joseph R Weisberger demanded to know from the two sailors; the reasons behind the break ins.

They replied that idle curiosity first took them into the house and said they became overwhelmed with the furnishings.

Judge Weisberger told them that they could easily be held on charges of burglary which carried a sentence up to life imprisonment. He challenged the four to prove that their conduct during the break-in was not typical of them and said that the deferred sentence will give them the opportunity of proving to the court that the crime was a mistake in their life patterns. "it is your God-given inheritance to know the difference between right and wrong" said Judge Weisberger as he placed the four on deferred sentences.
